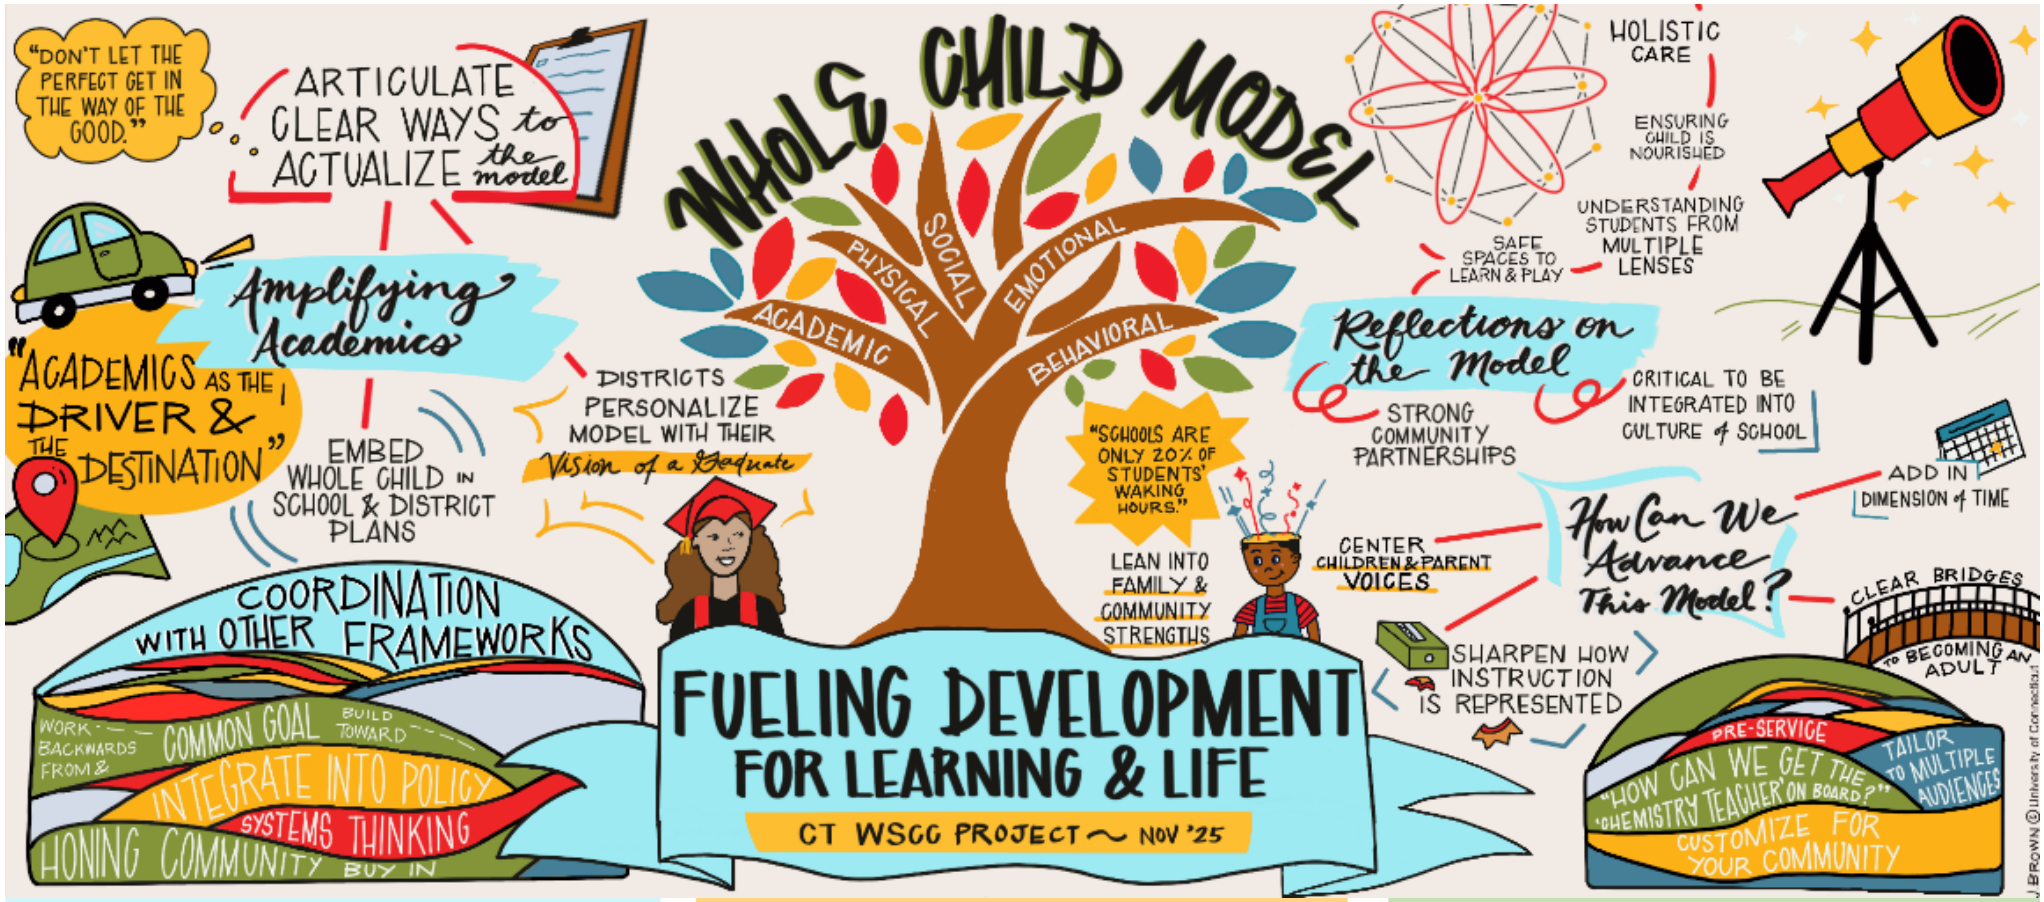
Connecticut Whole Child Convening

CT WSCC Partnership
February 2026

The CT WSCC Partnership convened state leaders in November 2025 to discuss how to advance the Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child model in CT. To learn more, read the full summary.



Strengths and Opportunities to Advance the WSCC Model

- Model is comprehensive and adaptable to facilitate integration of efforts
- There are opportunities to amplify connection to academic instruction, student and parent voices, and developmental stages

Amplifying Academics within the WSCC Model

- Embed whole child work within district strategic planning
- Adapt model to each school's "Vision of a Graduate" to reinforce alignment
- Communicate the link between health and academic achievement

Coordinating the WSCC Model with Other School Frameworks

- Approach the work with a systems mindset
- Aim to coordinate, not compete with current frameworks
- Tailor communication to different audiences
